About This Game

- Make your own village, anytime, anywhere.

Thinking of building your own village to show your workmanship? Oh no, you feel like that all buildings on the street are kind of grand castles? If so, it's time to play Tree of Life. You can make your own village anytime, anywhere. You can also be anyone. You can be a lord who rules a huge grand territory or makes a knight guild to protect the ToL world. What about a village for wanderers? Whatever you want!

- The one beautiful world.

Yes, our world is not perfect. It is full of dangers. So, it could be a good way to explore the ToL world in your room. What about the desert? Come and feel the sunshine, chase a mirage, find unique cactus and shooting stars... If you prefer the North Pole than the desert, why don't you explore the snowy field on the North? Please keep in mind that you should bring your warm leather clothes. (... be careful with bears!) Can you feel it? Just explore the world!

- Player-based Economy

Are you tired of endless battles? But you still want to support your guild as one of guild members? If so, be a master, then move the entire economy of ToL. Build and maintain your own farm, then generate food to support your guild. Or just be a grand merchant, then transport goods across the whole world, or be a master who makes good weapons in legendary level. Whichever is fine. That makes the economy.

- 21 Class combinations

World best warrior in the realm, legendary master, 5-star chef... You don't really know which one fits you? Well, have you ever thought why you can't be a mighty warrior and 5-star chef at the same time? Like... a chef who catches a big brown bear with his bare hands. As you want, you can be both of them N.O.W, since there are 21 job classes in the world! YAY~~~ You can make your own character as you like.

- Be a friend or be a foe. That is the question.

The real world is full of difficult choices. Yes... but what if the Tol world is, too? You can be a good friend with other players, or just be a night watchman to protect the new world order, or offer a reward for criminals to bring the justice. Depends on your choice. However just be careful. Anyone could offer a reward for you!

- Fight against your enemy!

Grand castles always win a lot of praise. Even monsters will envy you, thus please keep calm and don't panic, even though they begin the war to take your territory. This would be a superb chance to be the best knight in the ToL world! Be a hero by defeating your enemies who try to take your grand castle.

So, get ready for Tree of Life? Just play your own game, make your own world. In Tree of Life world, you can be anything whatever you want to be, and you can do anything whatever you want to. Yes, it's time to play REAL RPG. Don't miss the chance to live your second life. PLAY NOW!

the game is very laggy and buggy. It was really fun when it was in early access.

Then they ruined it.

All the good reviews on this game are around 2015-2016. Aka when it was good. This game HAD potential and a pretty loyal fan base.

Its not worth the buy. Even at 8 dollars.. Dont Buy... The support for this game is ending, and the servers wont be up longer then 3 months due to lack of funding. It does not stipulate this on the Steam Page and by the time you find out like I did Youll already have 9 hours plus in the game, and the only way I found out is because I was googling for in game help on some understanding, and ran across the article by accident. Steam wont give a refund even tho the developers stated they would for any purchases in the last month. I wont be supporting any new titles from Steam that are indi developers due to their bad business of not refunding when\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665likethis goes wrong. They got your money and running to the bank with smiles. while your left in the dust scratching you head.. The game used to have a great potential in the very beginning, but sadly, the developer ran out of money and the title has now been abandoned.

Most likely it is better to stay away from it now.. Do NOT purchase this title. Tho it is a fantastic and fun game, which I personally LOVE. The company has announced the LIVE servers will be shut down approx 3 months after MAY 15.
